

First Reading — Gn 9:8-15

A reading from the book of Genesis

God spoke to Noah and his sons, ‘See, I establish my Covenant with you, and with your descendants after you; also with every living creature to be found with you, birds, cattle and every wild beast with you: everything that came out of the ark, everything that lives on the earth. I establish my Covenant with you: no thing of flesh shall be swept away again by the waters of the flood. There shall be no flood to destroy the earth again.’ God said, ‘Here is the sign of the Covenant I make between myself and you and every living creature with you for all generations: I set my bow in the clouds and it shall be a sign of the Covenant between me and the earth. When I gather the clouds over the earth and the bow appears in the clouds, I will recall the Covenant between myself and you and every living creature of every kind. And so the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all things of flesh.’

Second Reading — 1 Pt 3:18-22

A reading from the first letter of St Peter

Christ himself, innocent though he was, died once for sins, died for the guilty, to lead us to God. In the body he was put to death, in the spirit he was raised to life, and, in the spirit, he went to preach to the spirits in prison. Now it was long ago, when Noah was still building that ark which saved only a small group of eight people ‘by water’, and when God was still waiting patiently, that these spirits refused to believe. That water is a type of the baptism which saves you now, and which is not the washing off of physical dirt but a pledge made to God from a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has entered heaven and is at God’s right hand, now that he has made the angels and Dominations and Powers his subjects.

Gospel—Mk 1:12-15

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

The Spirit drove Jesus out into the wilderness and he remained there for forty days, and was tempted by Satan. He was with the wild beasts, and the angels looked after him. After John had been arrested, Jesus went into Galilee. There he proclaimed the Good News from God. ‘The time has come’ he said ‘and the kingdom of God is close at hand. Repent, and believe the Good News.’

First Sunday of Lent, Year B

February 22, 2015

A fresh start

Today is about making a fresh start. People like the idea of making fresh starts, as evidenced by resolutions we make at the beginning of each New Year. For example, after a season of bad form or plagued by injuries to key players, football or cricket teams look forward to putting the past behind them and making a new start.

When I was preparing today’s reflection, I googled ‘fresh start’ and received thousands of hits. Groups and organisations used ‘fresh start’ to promote all kinds of programs: from drug rehabilitation and weight problems — to fitness clubs and improving school results. Human beings are attracted to the idea of making a fresh start. If we’ve had a bad year due to health, family or financial problems, we look to the New Year and starting afresh.

But it’s not just people who want to make a fresh start. As our first reading tells us, God also made a fresh start with his creation of the world. The story of Noah and the flood is an old and familiar one — maybe so familiar that it’s easy to forget what it’s about. We read only a part of it in today’s Eucharist. The story, found in the book of Genesis, is a long one and it starts with God regretting what he had created. After all, his work had gone wrong.

Adam and Eve had to be thrown out of the garden and Cain committed the terrible crime of murdering his own brother. As the human race multiplies and spreads, so does its wickedness. God comes to regret what has been created and decides on a fresh start. After the great flood, when Noah and company emerged from the ark, there was a new beginning. As is the case with the first chapter of the book of Genesis, the man and woman are told to “multiply and fill the earth”, Noah and his family are given the same command by God who is making a fresh start.

We read this story about a fresh start because we are now in the season of Lent, and are preparing for Easter and the celebration of new life. We hear and read about new life and leaving our bad habits behind. For people who will be baptised at Easter, it's obvious that they are beginning a new kind of life.

But for those of us who are long-time Catholics, we can also make a fresh start. We can leave behind things like old resentments; taking God and people for granted; or being indifferent to the needs and the suffering of others. Lent provides us with the time and the opportunity to look into our hearts and to confess our sins. God offers us the grace to make a new start and to live life with a renewed faith and a heart more open to the needs of others.

A DEEP, BIBLICAL LOOK AT JESUS CHRIST

The better we understand Jesus, the better we understand ourselves. But who was Jesus, this itinerant preacher whom many called the Messiah? In Priest, Prophet, King, you'll discover Jesus as the Anointed One—the ultimate priest, prophet and king foreshadowed throughout the Hebrew Scriptures. Using biblical insights and engaging stories, Fr Barron affirms that we see Jesus most clearly through the lens of the Old Testament.

Through this deeply biblical program, you will better understand Jesus, become more familiar with Scripture and realize your own priestly, prophetic and kingly mission, received when you are baptized "into Christ".

Our Lenten Reflection starts Tuesday 24 February 7pm at the Parish Hall.

VALENTINE'S RAFFLE

The raffle held for St Emily Hostel raised $1732.50. THANK YOU for your generosity and hope the winners are enjoying their prizes. Many of you made donations and we acknowledge that with deep appreciation. The hostel is near completion. The children will move in very soon. The furniture will arrive soon as it takes some organisation to transport it through the hill country. Your generosity has purchased the beds and mattresses and this raffle will help to equip the kitchen. The Sisters and the children grow their own rice and have had a good harvest. Thank you to the team of sellers led by Anne Marie Burke.
